

VIOLIN - VIOLA PACKAGING

Open the box and remove the trapezoidal internal packaging.

Place the instrument into the bottom shell using the existing button hole and cutting the handle holder to the desired height.

If necessary, tie the handle with a piece of string to secure it further.

Replace the trapezoidal box in its housing and close the box. The space between the outer and inner boxes can be used to transport accessories, the certificate, or filled with protective material.